KEYBOARDS / HAMMOND ORGAN / VOCALS / BASS

Rooted in soul. Built on experience.

THE MUSICIAN

Paul Jobson is a British keyboardist, Hammond organist, vocalist, bassist, musical director and arranger based in Germany. With more than 25 years of international touring, recording and broadcast experience, his playing is rooted in soul, funk, rhythm & blues and blues.

His collaborations include Chaka Khan, Ben E. King, The Brand New Heavies, Robben Ford, Joss Stone, Gloria Scott, Larry Graham and Boney M featuring Liz Mitchell. He also played bass on a tour with Henrik Freischlader. He has performed at Ronnie Scott's, The Jazz Café and the Barbican in London, and the Billboard Club in Tokyo.

A three-time British Blues Award nominee, Paul also placed among the top three keyboardists in a Blues Matters magazine poll. His television work includes the house band for BBC Four's Soul Britannia, recorded at the Barbican in 2007.
